Birmingham Hockey Association consistently ranks among the best youth hockey programs in Michigan because of a simple mission: develop each child's athletic abilities, mentor their love for playing the game, and foster a safe family-friendly environment.

Birmingham Hockey Association follows the USA Hockey American Development Model (ADM), and provides professional hockey/skating on ice training for all levels. Steve Kruk, Birmingham Unified high school hockey coach, directs BHA hockey player development and training operations.

- Players receive two game jerseys and socks
