FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Birmingham’s Golf Courses to open for the 2023 Season with Events, Programs and More

BIRMINGHAM, MI, March 29, 2023 – The City of Birmingham is excited to welcome golfers for the 2023 season. Lincoln Hills Golf Course is scheduled to open Saturday, April 1, and Springdale Golf Course will open Saturday, April 8, weather permitting. Rated as two of the top nine-hole golf courses in Oakland County, both offer courses that are picturesque, challenging and fun for all ages.

The popular Junior Golf program will continue at Lincoln Hills this summer, from June 12 – August 4. Golfers ages six to 16 can learn the fundamentals of golf and improve their skills through a variety of instruction options. Online registration begins Saturday, May 6. Residents and members may register starting at 9 a.m. before public registration opens at 11:30 a.m. Registration will remain open online until classes are filled. Detailed information regarding the program is available at www.bhamgov.org/juniorgolf.

Additionally, Lincoln Hills will host two events this spring to kick off the season. Register for the “Welcome Back Members” golf event happening on Sunday, April 23 with a shotgun start at 5 p.m., followed by awards and dinner. Celebrate Cinco de Mayo on Friday, May 5 during the “Cinco de Mayo” golf event starting at 5 p.m., followed by awards and dinner. For more information and to register, contact Lincoln Hills at (248) 530-1670.

Springdale Golf Course is located at 316 Strathmore Road and Lincoln Hills Golf Course is located 2666 West 14 Mile Road. Adaptive golf carts are available at both courses. Upon course opening, reservations may be made online or by calling Lincoln Hills at (248) 530-1670 or Springdale at (248) 530-1660. Learn more at www.bhamgov.org/golf.
