Bountiful Michigan Produce at Birmingham Farmers Market Harvest Festival Fresh Produce, Farm Animals and POP Club on September 17, 2017

BIRMINGHAM, MI, September 8, 2017 – Celebrating Michigan's bountiful fall produce, the Birmingham Farmers Market's Harvest Festival will be held on Sunday, September 17 from 9 a.m. to 2 p.m. Attendees will enjoy the season's best variety of Michigan-grown produce with large quantities filling the tables throughout the market.

The event will feature barn animals by Bowers School Farm, antique corn shelling machines, food trucks including Cortina, Ned's TravelBurger, and Franks Etc., plus the Kids Zone sponsored by Bright Loritos. Attendees will enjoy live music, a broadcast by WOMC, and the Power of Produce (POP) Club program.

Free Activities & Tastings for Kids during POP Club

1,2, POP! Kids can enjoy free activities, tastings, and prizes during the Power Of Produce (POP) program at the Birmingham Farmers Market on 9-17, 9-24, 10-1 and 10-8. Children will receive a $5 voucher for exclusive Michigan products. Thank you to Children's Hospital of Michigan for sponsoring this program and sharing a passion for healthy kids in our communities!

The Birmingham Farmers Market averages 2,800 shoppers each week and was recently ranked number two in the 'Top 9 Michigan Farmers Markets' article by Best Things Michigan. The market proudly features exclusively Michigan-grown produce and is subject to Michigan growing patterns. It offers a hometown experience that's fun for all ages, with fresh prepared foods, live music, a children's craft area and more. Throughout the season more than 60 booths feature a diverse array of locally and regionally grown produce including vegetables, fruits, freshly prepared foods, eggs, honey, jams and jellies, fresh meat, poultry, dog treats, flowers and garden plants, plus baked goods, hand-crafted items, soaps and decorative items.

The Birmingham Farmers Market is located at 660 North Old Woodward, across from Booth Park.
