Community Invited to Participate in Birmingham Hometown Parade

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., April 10, 2014 – The City of Birmingham will host the Birmingham Hometown Parade on Sunday, May 18 at 1 p.m. in downtown Birmingham. Members of the Birmingham community and surrounding areas are cordially invited to become a part of this treasured community tradition. Children's activities, strolling parade performers, food and live music performed by the Birmingham Concert Band will be held in Shain Park immediately after the parade.

The Birmingham Hometown Parade is a celebration of the Birmingham community and schools. Participation offers an opportunity for businesses, organizations, individuals, schools and groups to promote themselves to the community. People of all ages come to town to celebrate and enjoy the family-fun festivities. The half-mile parade route travels through the charming downtown with many shops and restaurants.
