Residents Invited to Submit Questions on Parks & Recreation Bond Opportunity

BIRMINGHAM, MI, September 28, 2020 – The City of Birmingham encourages residents to ask questions about the upcoming Parks and Recreation Bond opportunity at the October 6, 2020 Parks & Recreation Board meeting. The virtual meeting will begin at 6:30 p.m. via Zoom with focused discussion around the $11,250,000 bond to fund parks and recreation improvements across Birmingham.

Residents may send their questions in advance of the meeting to parksbond@bhamgov.org. Submitted questions will be answered first, followed by a brief live Q&A period. Visit www.bhamgov.org/parksboard to download the agenda and virtual meeting notice (available October 2nd).

“We hope residents take advantage of this opportunity to submit their questions and attend the meeting to gain a strong understanding of the Parks and Recreation Bond proposal, which is the last proposal listed on the general election ballot,” said Birmingham Director of Public Services, Lauren Wood.

Residents may learn more about the bond, access the tax calculator, and view a Q&A and concept plans at www.bhamgov.org/parksbond. Receive updates by signing up for the Parks & Recreation Bond Opportunity Constant Contact group at bit.ly/bhamnews.
