

Birmingham Museum 2018 Exhibition

The People of Birmingham: Celebrating 200 Years of Stories

The BIRMINGHAM MUSEUM

The Birmingham Museum would like to invite you to share a story about a special person from Birmingham's last 200 years. This person can be anyone from the present or the past—a friend or family member, an ancestor, a neighbor, or someone you remember growing up that made an impression on you. We are more interested in the story and why it is important to you than exact facts.

We will create exhibit panels featuring submitted entries and will display them in our museum and online during 2018—Birmingham's 200th year. You can fill out this form and drop it off or mail to us (see address at bottom of page). Due Date: December 15, 2017. To submit an entry, please follow the following guidelines:

Name of person you are submitting: _____
Year of birth/death (if unknown, please estimate): _____
Your name: _____ Please provide contact info (will not be published):
Email _____ Telephone: _____

In one or two sentences, please describe what inspires you about this person's story:

Tell us something you want people to know about this person in 200 words or less (attach sheet or write on back if needed):

Do you have a photo or artifact you would like to display or share to go with this story? It could be a family photo, picture of a house or building, a drawing, or a personal object. We can scan images and return them, or display your artifact during the exhibit. Or, feel free to arrange a time to come to the museum, and we will help you research in our files. Contact us at 248-530-1928 or www.bhamgov.org/museum.

Thank you for submitting your entry for our 2018 "The People of Birmingham: 200 Years of Stories" year-long exhibit. Your submission will become part of our permanent collection, and may appear online, in the museum, or both. The Birmingham Museum reserves the right to edit your entry as needed. The exhibit will run through December, 2018, and will include an online version that may be accessible permanently.