Birmingham's Lincoln Hills Golf Course to Open April 5 Birmingham Welcomes New Golf Pro, Matt Pesta

BIRMINGHAM, Mich., April 3, 2014 – With the weather finally feeling more like spring, Birmingham's Lincoln Hills Golf Course (located at 2666 West Fourteen Mile) is scheduled to open on Saturday, April 5. Springdale Golf Course is scheduled to open mid-April, weather permitting.

Discounted spring rates are in effect for a limited time only. Throughout April, Birmingham's golf courses are open to everyone; no membership required. In addition, brand new this year qualified golfers may purchase a 'Member for a Month' trial membership in May. The $25 month-long membership is available to brand new members and for previous members who have been absent more than one year.

Golfers will see a new face at Birmingham's golf courses this year. The City welcomes Matt Pesta, PGA Teaching Professional, to their professional staff for the 2014 season. Pesta was a member of the Hooters Tour in 2001 and also on the Canadian Tour in 2011. With more than ten years of experience, he possesses great communication skills with a knack for bringing the best out of students. Pesta has given more than 10,000 lessons and met many great players and instructors. He is excited to bring his passion for the game to the City of Birmingham in 2014.
